

Enterprise Mourns the Passing of Abe Pollin

The entire Enterprise family mourns the passing of Abe Pollin and we extend our deep condolences to his family and staff. We are honored to have had the opportunity to work closely with Mr. Pollin on the development of workforce housing in Washington, D.C.

As a result of his leadership, generous spirit and support, we are developing replacement public rental housing and affordable homeownership opportunities for firefighters, teachers, nurses and police officers. Enterprise will always be inspired by his vision and generosity, and will proudly carry on his determination to provide high-quality housing for the Washington, D.C., workforce.

Mr. Pollin was a true urban visionary, and his deep love for the nation's capital and its people will be felt for generations to come.

Enterprise is a leading provider of the development capital and expertise it takes to create decent, affordable homes and rebuild communities. For more than 25 years, Enterprise has introduced neighborhood solutions through public-private partnerships with financial institutions, governments, community organizations and others that share our vision. Enterprise has raised and invested more than $10 billion in equity, grants and loans to help build or preserve more than a quarter million affordable rental and for-sale homes to create vital communities. Enterprise is currently investing in communities at a rate of $1 billion a year. Visit www.enterprisecommunity.org and www.enterprisecommunity.com to learn more about Enterprise's efforts to build communities and opportunity.