Central Mountains - Stakeholder Themes

- Housing gap for households earning 31-80% AMI.

Eastern Plains - Stakeholder Themes

- High construction and infrastructure costs due to remote locations.
- It often costs more to build a home than its appraisal value.
- Limited financial and human resource capacity in small communities makes development challenging.
- Land is available and communities are eager for development.
Colorado’s Rural Regions - Rural Resort:

Counties included: Eagle, Grand, Gunnison, Ouray, Pitkin, Routt, San Miguel, Summit.

Western Slope - Stakeholder Themes

- Short building season leads to high construction costs.
- Workforce housing is a primary need.
- Low paying jobs and student debt burden makes it difficult to qualify for mortgages.
- Lack of options for 80-120% AMI households leads to outmigration.
- Short term rentals and second homes are adding to the affordable housing problem.
- Additional vouchers are needed in the region.

chfa strengthens Colorado by investing in affordable housing and community development

- Loans and tax credits to developers of affordable housing
- Access to capital for business owners
- Loan programs and homebuyer education for homeownership
CHFA's 2019 community investment

CHFA invested $3.3 billion to support affordable housing and economic development throughout Colorado.

$2.9B | $324.2M
invested in homeownership | invested in affordable rental housing

$64.5M | $69.4M
in federal and state housing tax credits awarded | invested in businesses and nonprofits
Subsidized Affordable Housing Stock

Annual construction rates for subsidized housing have declined from a mid-1970s high of 300,000 units to 75,000 - 100,000 units today.

For every new affordable apartment created, two are lost.

Affordable use periods for ~ 2.2 M privately owned and federally assisted units will end between 2015 to 2025.

Colorado: 1,400 multifamily properties and ~ 70,000 subsidized units.
Affordable Housing Stock

- 400K USDA units
- 1.2 million public housing units
- 1.5 million federally assisted, privately-owned, affordable homes
- 3 million Low Income Housing Tax Credit units
- 5.5 million unsubsidized affordable rental units
Affordable Housing Pressures

Primary reasons the supply of subsidized rental housing is shrinking:

- Conversion from subsidized units to market rate or for-sale
- Owner capacity/interest
- Physical deterioration and neglect of properties
Preservation

Taking action to ensure the federal subsidy and low-income restrictions remain in place, preserving long-term affordability

Usually combined with raising new capital to repair the property

May involve transferring the property to a new owner committed to the long-term affordability of the property
Preservation Benefits

- More cost effective than new construction; energy and resource efficient
- Preservation is easier than new construction: entitlement process already completed
- Critical community assets that have received public support are maintained
- Stable rental housing is vital to diverse, equitable, healthy communities
Units being lost and no coordinated strategy for preserving the long term affordability of multifamily rental properties

Uncertainty regarding the affordable subsidized inventory in Colorado

Increasing property values makes preservation more difficult
Establish a core preservation working group of key stakeholders - Housing Preservation Network

Designate a point person for preservation efforts

Develop and maintain a master database to track inventory of affordable housing and identify “at risk” properties

Implement a coordinated strategy for preserving the long-term affordability of housing units
