

Boston | Chicago | Denver | Los Angeles | Miami | New York | San Francisco | Seattle | Washington DC

The High-Cost Cities Housing Forum (HCHF) is a peer-to-peer group comprised of the local housing commissioners from nine of the most expensive cities in the United States. The forum serves as a venue for policymakers to discuss housing policy, offer program ideas and exchange best practices.

The cities represented in the forum share many unifying characteristics, including expensive real estate, robust population and economic growth and a housing stock characterized by more multifamily than single-family housing. Current members include:

Britta Fisher (Chair)

Executive Director and Chief Housing Officer of Denver Department of Housing Stability
Denver

Sheila Dillon

Chief of Housing and Director of the Department of Neighborhood Development
Boston

Eric Shaw

Director of the Mayor's Office of Housing
San Francisco

Polly Donaldson

Director of the Department of Housing &
Community Development
District of Columbia

Emily Alvarado

Director of the Office of Housing
Seattle

Eric Enderlin

President of the Housing Development Corporation
New York City

Louise Carroll

Commissioner of the Department of Housing
Preservation Development
New York City

George Mensah

Director of the Department of Community &
Economic Development
Miami

Ann Sewill

General Manager of the Housing &
Community Investment Department
Los Angeles

Marisa Novara

Commissioner of the Department of Housing
Chicago

The HCHF is convened by Enterprise Community Partners. To learn more about the forum, contact Flora Arabo, Enterprise's National Director for State & Local Policy, at farabo@enterprisecommunity.org.