

Joseph Wesolowski

Chief Operating Officer, Enterprise Community Investment, Inc.

410.772.2512

jwesolowski@enterprisecommunity.com

Joe Wesolowski is chief operating officer for Enterprise Community Investment. He directs and oversees Bellwether Enterprise, Enterprise Mortgage Banking Operations and Enterprise Homes, Inc. Previously, Joe's area of responsibility included the New Markets Tax Credit program and coordination of field production for all business lines.

A seasoned real estate professional with over 35 years of experience, Joe has proven expertise in financial management, strategic planning, and deal structuring and negotiation. He joined Enterprise in 2004.

Formerly, Joe was chief financial officer of USF&G Realty Advisors, Inc. where he oversaw all financial operations. He served as executive vice president for a local real estate developer responsible for development, financing, leasing and management of owned real estate. Joe also served as a political appointee to Baltimore City as a real estate officer with responsibility for overseeing city government real estate acquisition, disposition, leasing, analysis and approval of all deal structures.

A certified public accountant, Joe earned his bachelor's degree in accounting from Loyola College, graduating summa cum laude. He holds a Master of Administrative Science from the Johns Hopkins University.