Stephanie L. Shack is senior vice president and general counsel for Enterprise Community Investment, Inc. She is responsible for coordinating all legal work for the company including supervision of outside counsel, corporate legal compliance, document preparation and litigation.

Stephanie joined Enterprise in 2017 with an extensive background in commercial real estate and finance. Most recently, she was senior vice president, associate general counsel and assistant secretary with Corporate Office Properties Trust (COPT), a publicly traded real estate investment trust. Stephanie spent almost 16 years at COPT, where she gained extensive experience in real estate development, acquisitions and dispositions of commercial office properties, leasing and capital markets, including both equity and secured and unsecured debt. Prior to that, she was associate counsel at The Johns Hopkins Health System Corporation, and held positions at DLA Piper, a global law firm, and with U.S. Magistrate Judge John E. Dougherty.

Stephanie graduated with college honors from Washington University in St. Louis with a degree in psychology and received her law degree with distinction from Emory University School of Law.

Stephanie has been active in numerous charitable and community organizations. She currently serves on the board for Habitat for Humanity of the Chesapeake and as part of that board participation also chairs Habitat's Homeowner Services Committee and serves on the organization's Executive Committee. She is also active with Leadership Howard County and United Way of Central Maryland's Toqueville Executive Council. Prior community involvement included board service for Big Brothers Big Sisters of the Chesapeake, Columbia Festival of the Arts and The Woman's Industrial Exchange. In April 2017, Stephanie was honored to be named one of Maryland's Top 100 Women by The Daily Record.
