Mark McDermott is vice president and Ohio market leader for Enterprise Community Partners, Inc. He leads a team of nine in delivering Enterprise's programming and investment in affordable housing and community development activities in Cleveland, Columbus and throughout Ohio. Mark joined Enterprise in 1998 as director of Enterprise's Cleveland office. He was promoted to vice president in 2003.

Mark came to Enterprise with 15 years of experience in citywide housing development, management and training organizations. Prior to joining Enterprise, he spent eight years as executive director of the Cleveland Housing Network. In addition, he served as research associate in community housing programs for the Center for Neighborhood Development at Cleveland State University and as executive director of the Citizens to Bring Broadway Back.

Mark has a master's degree in urban planning, design and development from the Levin College at Cleveland State University and a bachelor's degree in English from Borromeo College of Ohio. He is a member of the board of trustees for Cleveland Neighborhood Progress, Village Capital Corporation, and Evergreen Energy Solutions and a member of Mayor Frank Jackson's Sustainability Cleveland 2019 Stewardship Council.
