Scott Hoekman is president & CEO of Enterprise Housing Credit Investments, LLC, Enterprise's Low-Income Housing Tax Credit syndication business. He oversees the acquisition, underwriting and placement of more than $800 million annually in Housing Credit transactions as well as the asset management of Enterprise's $10.6 billion Housing Credit portfolio.

Scott has been in the Housing Credit business for 25 years. He began his Enterprise career in 1994 as a syndication underwriter, and from 1999 to 2003 he managed acquisitions in a 10-state area. From 2004 to 2018 he served as senior vice president and chief credit officer, and in 2017 he assumed interim leadership of the asset management team. As of October 2018, he was named president & CEO of Enterprise Housing Credit Investments, LLC, a newly formed member of the Enterprise family of companies. Since inception, Enterprise has deployed more than $14 billion of Housing Credit equity into 2,300 Housing Credit developments, creating and preserving more than 158,000 affordable homes.

Scott is involved in Enterprise's public policy work and advocacy on behalf of the Housing Credit and other resources to end housing insecurity and create opportunity. He is co-chair of the ACTION Campaign, a coalition with more than 2,200 member organizations working to expand and strengthen the Housing Credit. He is also on the board of directors of the Affordable Housing Tax Credit Coalition. As a veteran practitioner, he is frequently asked to provide his expertise to leaders of the affordable housing industry as well as members of Congress and federal and state officials.

Prior to joining Enterprise, Scott was an affordable housing lender with Boston Community Loan Fund (now BlueHub Capital). He holds a master's degree from the Tufts University Department of Urban and Environmental Policy and a bachelor's degree from Calvin College.
