Mark Linnell is the senior director of business systems at Enterprise Housing Credit Investments, LLC, Enterprise's Low-Income Housing Tax Credit syndication business. He oversees all systems development for the entire Housing Credit business line focusing on larger Enterprise-wide digital information strategy.

Mark has been in the housing credit business for 20 years. He began his career at Enterprise Community Asset Management, Inc., where he worked as a senior regional accounting manager overseeing lower tier reporting requirements for over 300 communities. Most recently, he worked as a project manager in Enterprise's Information Technology department, managing the digital transformation strategy for Enterprise Homes, Inc.

Prior to joining Enterprise in 2010, Mark worked as a controller for a property management and development company. Before that, Mark worked as an auditor for a national CPA firm that specialized in Housing Credits. He has a bachelor's degree in accounting and computer studies from the University of Maryland University College.
