

WALKER WELLS

GLOBAL GREEN | SANTA MONICA, CA

Rio Vista, Los Angeles, developed by Abode Communities.

Walker Wells is Vice President of Programs and Director of the Green Urbanism Program for Global Green USA. He works with cities, neighborhoods, and community development organizations across the country to further green building and sustainable development practices through technical guidance, stakeholder facilitation, and the development of policies and programs. Mr. Wells is a 2013 Fulbright Fellow with the Royal Institute of Technology Urban Planning Program in Stockholm, a 2012 Pritzker Fellow at the UCLA Institute of the Environment and Sustainability, and co-author of the 2007 book Blueprint for Greening Affordable Housing.

Global Green USA is the American affiliate of Green Cross International, founded by President Gorbachev, to foster a global value shift toward a sustainable and secure future. Global Green helps local governments, schools, and public agencies integrate sustainable design, clean energy, and water reduction measures with the goal of helping people reduce waste, live better, and act more sustainably today — and in the future.
