Bank of America and Enterprise Partner to Foster Innovation and Strengthen Communities

We are proud to announce a renewed partnership with Bank of America. With a $3.75 million grant provided by Bank of America, Enterprise will support community development initiatives in urban and rural areas, building the capacity of local community development organizations, advocating for improved policies at the federal, state and local level and more.

ENTERPRISE NEEDS YOUR VOTE

At the annual SOCAP (Social Capital Markets) conference this fall in San Francisco Enterprise has an opportunity to highlight our approach to impact investing while showcasing a powerful new tool that helps investors and others assess opportunity for individuals and communities.

We can't do it without you, though. Please vote for our session: “Better Measures: Assessing Community Need, Social Impact and Financial Return in Impact Investments.”
